Also riders who have, in the 12 months prior to claiming, gained 62% or above in Advanced 102 or 105 or FEI YR level tests and have claimed Group 3 status in order to ride at PSG by writing to the BD Office (see Rule 5d). Foreign riders and those who have spent a minimum of 12 months abroad will be no lower than a Group 3 rider upon registration unless dispensation is granted by British Dressage.

All other riders.

All Pony, Junior and Young Riders regardless of their age will adhere to the same rules as a Senior Group 1 rider if they compete in a Senior International CDI, CDIO, CDI-W, Small Tour or Big Tour (UK or abroad). This does not apply to Under 21 riders competing in CDIs at Pony, Junior and Young Rider level.

Riders who have not competed at or above a specific level (including British Eventing) for four years or more may apply to the BD office in writing to down group by one level only.

British Eventing riders

British Dressage and British Eventing riders awarded a Union flag must ride in the Open section with the exception of Para Equestrian Dressage riders. See BD rule 46 for further definitions and exceptions. As soon as anyone receives a Union flag any qualifications already gained in Restricted sections will be transferred to Open sections.

- A rider who has competed at British Eventing Advanced horse trials since 1st April 1994 may not be below a Group 5 rider.
- A rider who has competed at British Eventing Intermediate horse trials since 1st April 1994 may not be below a Group 6 rider.

Under articles 105 and 123 of the FEI rules please note that foreign riders competing in the UK must have permission to compete from their national federation. Permission must state the exact period for which it has been granted and the home national federation of individual foreign competitors shall indicate their level in writing so that they are entered in events of appropriate level.

Membership applications and membership renewals from foreign riders will not be accepted by British Dressage unless accompanied by a copy of the permission to compete.
