About Spencer:

Born and raised in Suffolk, Spencer was a keen member of the Essex and Suffolk Pony Club where eventing was his love. He went on to represent Britain as an individual at the Pony European Championships. He took the decision to leave school at 16 to pursue a career in horse and served as a working pupil under Ruth McMullen, Lucinda Green and Mark Todd. However, Spencer came to realise that he wasn't going to be 'good enough or brave enough' to make it in top flight eventing.

He'd been working for Lord and Lady Bamford at the time and met Carl Hester who regularly came to teach their daughter Alice. And it was through watching these lessons that an interested in dressage was sparked. Spencer then moved to Carl's yard in the mid-90s to help with the number of horses and his career in dressage began.

At Carl's he was given the opportunity to bring on some of the young horses and he found a real partnership with Dolendo and took him from Novice to Grand Prix. Spencer left Carl's yard in 2007 and then took a few years out from competing.

In 2010, he was back with a new string of horses including a new ride purchased for him by Jen Goodman from Carl, Goodmans Supernova, the black stallion, Zamboucca and grey Doogie. He was back to winning ways and the horses progressed up the ladder with 'Neville' making his Grand Prix debut in 2014. He scored his first international win in 2014 when taking the Grand Prix at Barcelona in Spain over 70%.
