LECTURE DEMONSTRATIONS

DEVELOPMENT OF LATERAL WORK WITHIN THE DRESSAGE ARENA, CONDUCTED BY LAURA FRY.

31st March at Willerby Hill, East Yorkshire

The demonstration giving clear explanation of lateral movements through the levels, from leg yield, shoulder in, walk pirouettes, travers, half pass in trot, half pass in canter, canter pirouettes. Participants should go away with knowledge of the directives for each movement, aids and preparation for each movement and how the scales of training are relevant to all lateral movements. A variety of horse rider combinations will be used to show the audience the lateral movements through the levels of dressage.

THE VIEW FROM C, CONDUCTED BY SUE CARSON

16th April at Barleyfileds EC, Derbyshire

Sue will explain to the audience what to look for in a Prelim, Novice and Elementary dressage test by judging 'out loud' the test performed by each rider. She will then discuss how the test went, the marks awarded, collective marks, comments and interpretation of the score sheet. Further Information & Application forms available on the regional web page

BOOKING JUDGE TRAINING COURSES

Unless otherwise stated.

Confirmation of receipt of applications will be sent via email

Times issued 3-5 days prior to the date via email or phone

British Dressage Northern Region

OFFICIAL JUDGE TRAINING

Please note that "Official" judge training is that which is organized by British Dressage and conducted by official British Dressage Trainer Judges.

Each training session may only cover 1 or 2 specific levels.

These training sessions will be advertised on the British Dressage website and via email communication to listed judges and trainee's.

These training sessions require an official signature from either the course taker or RDO.

"Other Relevant Training" may be that which is organized by British Dressage or by an 3rd party and should be clearly stated in the Judges log book.
