COACHES

Hannah Moody

Hannah Moody is a registered British Dressage Coach and the BYRDS representative on the Northern Region Committee. Many of Hannah's pupils have been successful at national level and she started Kwadraat on his successful career with top placings at the Nationals up to Medium level and Medium Elite Champion in 1999. She has also had great success training and competing other horses from youngsters to Grand Prix. Hannah regularly trains with David Hunt.

Carol Bennitt (BHSI)

Carol Bennitt is a registered British Dressage Coach and runs monthly Central Regional coaching sessions. Carol currently competes "Candini" who she has trained to inter 1 level, and is actively competing at PSG and Inter I. Up to 2011, they have won at several Premier League shows and competed at the CDI in Hartpury, as well as competing at the BD Nationals for the last three years at PSG and Inter 1. Carol also has "Wise Guy" who she is competing at Medium level. Carol regularly trains with Carl Hester.

Jo Swain (UKCC Level 3)

Jo Swain is a registered British Dressage Coach, working towards her UKCC Level 3 coaching certificate, Central BYRDS Trainer, selector and accredited judge. Jo is one of the Senior Central-Region Trainers and Home International Selectors and a registered U21-UK trainer. Jo presently competes her own Lord of the Rings. Lord of the Rings is now back in work after injury and will be competing at Small Tour at the end of the summer. Jo has recently been appointed by British Dressage to the role of rider training representative for the central region. Jo regularly trains with David Hunt and Peter Storr.
