

Riding Clinic with Isobel Wessels

Monday 27 February 2012 at Brickhouse Farm

Chagall and Isobel Wessels 2011 National Medium and Advanced Medium Champions.

Isobel is a list 1 British Dressage judge and one of the very few British based Olympic FEI 'O' judge. She is obviously a very experienced international judge but has produced several Grand Prix horses herself. Last year was also an amazing highlight of her career by winning both the Medium and Advanced Medium open National titles at the British Dressage Championships.

There will be several horses working at Grand Prix level but also young or Novice level horses. Isobel is a very experienced trainer but is very happy to work with horses of any level. Sessions will be of 45 min each and run between 9:30 and 16:30 approximately with a lunch break from 12:45 to 13:45 (exact timings will be confirmed by return of spectator's tickets).

Spectators' tickets: A limited number available and only pre-paid in advance on a first come first served basis. Hot drinks will be provided with the spectators tickets. Cost: £15 (non-refundable; please apply by email first to check availability and only then post your payment made out to Assouline Dressage along with your current email address for your e-ticket).

Riders: Payable in advance before 10 February at £75 per 45 min session. Limited stabling! Book with session: £35 per day.

For all bookings and more info please apply to Mette Assouline preferably by email: mette@assoulinedressage.com (alternatively call 01787 221636, or write to Brickhouse Farm, Colne Engaine, Essex CO6 2HJ). If you would like to take part with your horse in the clinic feel free to discuss your training requirements with Mette beforehand.
