

Executive Summary

Judges Technical Committee Meeting

30 September 2019

1. From Spring 2020, BD will be offering Safeguarding courses open to all.
2. Shadow judging for Premier Leagues: a process will be shared in a forthcoming newsletter.
3. The process to escalate welfare issues to the office was discussed and will be highlighted in the next newsletter.
4. Tutor judges day will be held at the new RDA centre in Shrewley on Tuesday 7 and Wednesday 8 January 2020.
5. Judges feedback survey was discussed.
6. A discussion took place on the Judges Education System and the progress of the working party sub groups.
7. The Championships list was reviewed and updated - due to the limited number of places at Championships, there is no guarantee that all judges invited will be used levels but we will rotate allocations where possible.
8. Good uptake for the Judges' Seminar at Olympia 2020 - additional places maybe available if the reserved places are not filled by FEI judges.
9. Principles Seminar 5 and 6 October 2019 – still some spaces left, tickets have sold well.
10. Judges Convention - Tuesday 14 April 2020 at Addington. Presenters will be Stephen Clarke and Ferdi Eilberg.
11. Dates for January Part 1 and 2 will be published on line and in the newsletter.
12. New Officials Education Supervisor will be starting the first week of November 2019.
13. Judges for Winter and National championships will be overseen by an independent panel.
14. Date of the next meeting: Monday 6 January in the BD Board Room, Meriden.
