

Quest CLUB CHECKLIST

Is everyone in your team a BD Club Member and are all your horses BD Club registered?

Club Membership Form and Horse Registration Form

Have you delegated your Team Captain and come up with a catchy name?

Usually the Team Captain is the one who loves a bit of admin and excels at writing lists! Check out whether your team name is available by emailing teamquest@britishdressage.co.uk

Have you registered your team with QCHO?

Team Registration Form – just complete the form and email to teamquest@britishdressage.co.uk. Remember there is no deadline to register your team, and we'll email your Team Captain to let you know when your application has been processed!

Have you got your team colours sorted and ordered team outfits?

The Team Quest Clothing range is available from Tylers Horse and Country with official Quest Club logos

Have you looked up Quest competitions in your area?

Take a look at every Quest competition here - simply select TeamQuest in the 'Event Type' box and click 'Search'. You can also filter by venues, counties and dates!

Have you entered directly with the venue?

Simply visit the website of the venue you wish to attend and use their online entry system to get you and your team entered for an exciting day of Questing!

Started learning your tests?

Buy all the BD tests from the BD Shop

You're good to go!

GOOD LUCK!
