Can I make changes to my team?

Yes! You can make changes to your team at any point during the Quest season, simply by emailing teamquest@britishdressage.co.uk or calling 02476698845 – you don't need to fill in the Team Registration Form again unless you are registering a new team. You can have a maximum of seven riders and an unlimited number of horses registered to your team.

Can we only compete in our allocated region?

You can compete in any region! The Team Quest points you gain will be allocated to your Team Quest region irrelevant of where in the country you gained these points. Your team must attend the Regional Final for your allocated region.

Can our team change region?

Yes! Your team can change region in order to be closer to your Regional Final, simply by emailing teamquest@britishdressage.co.uk or calling 02476698845. Remember, you must make this request within two months of first competing in the current Quest season!

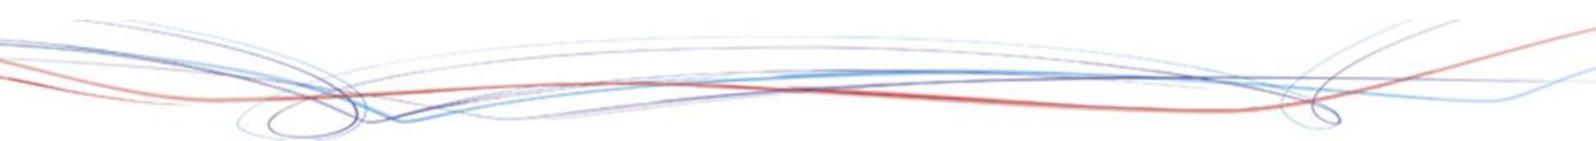

Can my friend and I both ride the same horse?

Yes! Horses can compete in up to two Team Quest tests per day and this can be on the same team, at the same or different levels. Just remember your horse can only do a maximum of four tests a day, including My Quest tests.

Can I compete for two teams on the same day?

Yes! If you are riding two different horses on two different teams you can compete at the same level, or if you are riding the same horse on two different teams this must be at two different levels.

Can I compete twice for the same team?

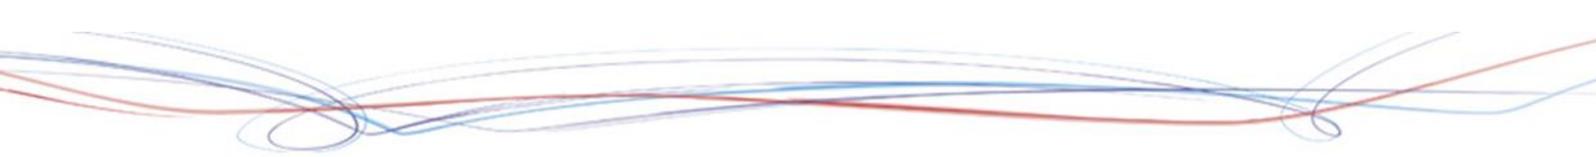

Unfortunately not, a rider may not ride more than once for a team on the same day.

The leaderboard is wrong – what can I do?

If you spot a problem, first check the list of missing results and that you and your horse are eligible. Then simply email teamquest@britishdressage.co.uk or call 02476698845 to resolve any problems. Remember that only your points from your best five placings count towards your team's leaderboard points!
