- Riders must produce two score sheets of 67% or more at Elementary level

Prime Squad

- Combinations to be competing at Medium/FEI level
- Riders must produce two score sheets of 67% plus in FEI Pony Team Tests or at Medium level

To be considered for this day:

Please download the application form and results chart from www.britishdressage.co.uk and email completed forms to sharon.weir@britishdressage.co.uk. Detailing on the results chart two relevant dressage scores / percentages (of the combination) gained in the current year, from different judges at affiliated competitions at Elementary/Medium level at 67% or above (Elem/Med test in a long arena). If you are accepted, the cost will be £70.00 per combination to attend the day.

Last date for acceptance of application forms will be Friday 17 August 2018

If you are unable to attend the Viewing Day and would still like to be considered, the Pony Selectors have the right to consider video or DVD evidence and test sheets. Please send copies for the attention of Sharon Weir to the BD Office. Riders must also send an objective statement explaining why they are unable to attend the viewing day and it will be at the discretion of the Selectors as to its acceptance.

European Championship Team and Reserve combinations MUST commit themselves by writing to the BD office, for the attention of Sharon Weir, stating their intention of continuing to be part of the Squad.
