Notes for team registration

Teams must register their team name and its members with British Dressage. The name chosen must not have been used before.

Teams can be made up of a minimum of three and maximum of four different riders. Additional reserve riders and horses can be registered to a team up to a maximum of seven riders with unlimited horses.

If the composition of the team changes, these changes must be registered with BD by the day of the competition. No two teams may have the exact same composition at any time.

Teams must select their chosen region upon registration. If a team wishes to change regions they must do so within two months of the team first competing in a new Quest season by applying to the BD office.

Please email your completed form to teamquest@britishdressage.co.uk
