CONGRATULATIONS!

You have achieved your qualification for the Scottish Championship.

Qualifying Rules for 2019:

Qualifying period 1 September 2018 to close of entries of the Championship.

Horses that finish 1st or 2nd in a British Dressage affiliated class (excluding Quest and Combined Training) in Scotland or elsewhere in Great Britain if ridden by a resident in Scotland or a person born there will qualify. Riders must be born or reside in Scotland to compete at the Scottish Championships.
Please ensure you read carefully the Scottish Dressage Championship rules available on the Scotland page of the BD website.

Preliminary classes are only open to combinations eligible for Preliminary Bronze or Preliminary Silver.

All horses and riders must be fully registered with BD to compete at the Scottish Championships.

Please complete this letter if it is your intention to compete at the Scottish Championships and email to Emma Stewart at emma.stewart@britishdressage.co.uk. There will be no further paperwork issued once the qualification letter has been lodged.   You will enter the Championships in the normal manner and all entries will be checked against qualifying letters submitted. Failure to correctly record your qualification could mean that you will be unable to take part in the championships.
The schedule will be in the BD magazine and the BD website.
