

British Dressage Scotland Regional Committee Vacancy Voluntary Judges Representative

The Scotland region committee is made up of a team of volunteers who work together to organise and promote training opportunities and events to our membership across the region. The committee are key in driving initiatives within the region and steering the direction of British Dressage within Scotland.

The Scotland Region is one of the largest geographical regions within BD and has over 800 paid members and over 2400 associate members sharing a passion for Dressage.

We are seeking an enthusiastic and motivated individual to work with the Regional Committee and RDO to develop and support training opportunities and initiatives judges across the entire geographical spread of the region.

Being a member of the Scotland region committee is an excellent way to put something back in to the sport of Dressage whilst broadening your own CV and experience. As part of the committee you will be working within the team to directly influence the direction of BD within Scotland.

Applications open on the 6 December 2017 and close on 12 January 2018. Successful applicants will have an informal discussion regarding your thoughts, ideas and suggestions for the development of the region.

If you are interested in this role please click here download the application form at http://www.britishdressage.co.uk/your_regions/scotland_region and return to Emma Stewart. Please feel free to contact Emma Stewart, Scotland Regional Development Office for further information or if you would like to discuss the role, 07584147258 / emma.stewart@britishdressage.co.uk

Description of the Role

The Judges Delegate is a member of the Regional Committee which includes a Chairman and representatives for senior training, coaching, para dressage, marketing and BD Youth. The Regional Committee work closely with the Regional Development Officer to develop, support and promote BD activity throughout their region.

Specifically, the Judges Delegate works with the Regional Committee and Regional Development Officer to support and develop judge training opportunities in the region.

He/she will also receive and implement briefs/guidance from the BD Judges Committee and team at head office and will have the opportunity to provide input from their regional perspective back.

The role involves:-

- Support the Regional Development Officer (RDO) in developing exciting training opportunities for judges in the region
- Represent Judging on the Regional Committee and share the responsibility for BD's activities in the region with the rest of the Regional Committee
- Attend Regional Committee meetings at least 2 a year.
- Give input from your regional perspective into the national BD Judging Committee. Attend Regional Representatives meetings at least 2 a year.
- Take and implement a brief from the national Judging Committee to ensure consistency in approach across regions
- Help identify and set up suitable training opportunities to assist judges aiming to upgrade
- Assist judges in the region with their CPD
- Encourage and motivate judges in your region to develop their judging skills
- Support the RDO in ongoing evaluation of all regional Judging activities, using this to inform future development

You will need some relevant skills, experience and attributes such as:-

- Being a Judge yourself or have a good understanding of Judging
- Great organisational abilities – this is a hands-on role
- Being happy to do the mundane tasks to make it happen as well as the more exciting developmental planning
- Computer literacy (and access to a computer) – most communications are by email
- Being approachable by anyone
- Masses of enthusiasm for judging and the sport of dressage
- Enough time available

Terms of Service

All Regional Committee roles are subject to a maximum length of two consecutive terms of 4 years, therefore a regional representative may serve up to 8 years in one role

All regional representative roles are subject to a 6 month probation period.